How to read your Allstate House & Home℠ Policy Declarations.

When you purchase an Allstate House & Home Policy, you’ll receive a Policy Declarations. This document “declares” the choices you’ve made for your home insurance policy, such as deductibles for some coverages as well as optional protection you may have purchased. It’s important to note that the Policy Declarations is not a bill.

You’ll receive a new Allstate House & Home Policy Declarations every renewal period, which is typically one year. You should always read through your renewal each year to make certain you’re up-to-date on the latest features of the policy, any changes in premiums or other vital information.

The following page is an example of an Allstate House & Home Policy Declarations and shows you where to find some of the important information. It’s a good idea to check your own Policy Declarations to make sure all the information is correct.

Questions? Want to make changes? Call your Allstate Agent or 1-800-ALLSTATE.
Total Premium. This is the amount you pay, whether in full or by installment, for your property’s insurance protection for a one-year policy period and includes all the coverages you have selected.

Discounts. Any discounts you may have received are listed here.

Coverages. This shows all the coverages you have purchased and not purchased as part of your homeowners insurance. For more about coverages, see pages 6-15 of this brochure.

Location of property. This shows the address of the insured property.

Policy period. Home policies typically cover a one-year period.

Deductibles. A deductible is the amount you pay out of pocket when you file a claim for a covered loss.* Your policy’s deductibles will be shown next to each coverage. For more about deductibles, see page 11 of this brochure.

Limits of liability. This shows the maximum limit Allstate will pay for each covered loss.* For more about limits, see page 9 of this brochure.

What does “covered loss” mean?

It’s an insurance term that means a loss or damage that falls within the bounds of the policy. Throughout the rest of this brochure, when we refer to a loss or accident, we assume it is a covered loss.
An overview of homeowners insurance.

Allstate House & Home℠ Insurance protects you and your family in many kinds of situations involving your home and the things you own. This brochure summarizes key information about homeowners insurance including:

- Home and other structures
- Personal property
- Deductibles
- Other ways you’re protected
- What may not be covered
- Optional protection you can buy
- Claims

Personal Property such as furniture and other contents are typically covered.
Read more about Personal Property Protection on pages 8-10.
Family Liability Protection helps protect you if someone sues you for damages after being injured on your property.

Read more about Family Liability Protection on page 12.

Your Dwelling is covered under your policy and includes your home and structures, such as a garage or deck, that are attached to your home.

Read more about Dwelling Protection on pages 6-7.

Other Structures are covered under your policy and include buildings, such as a garage or storage shed, that are separate from the house.

Read more about Other Structures Protection on pages 6-7.
Your home and buildings are protected.

Homeowners insurance can help protect your most important asset. The property section of your policy includes two basic types of protection:

- Dwelling Protection covers the home you live in and other structures attached to it, such as a garage, porch or deck.

- Other Structures Protection covers other buildings on your property that are separate from your home, such as a stand-alone garage or a shed.

If your home or garage is damaged, your homeowners insurance can help you repair or replace it.
We cover a range of perils.

Your Allstate House & Home℠ Insurance typically covers a range of perils. Below are a few of the most common ones.

- Theft
- Fire and smoke
- Windstorm or hail
- Falling objects
- Freezing of plumbing
- Car crash into home
- Water damage from plumbing, furnace/AC or water heater

What if your home is too damaged to live in?

If you temporarily cannot live in your home due to damage from a peril we cover, you may have to pay to rent a place until your home is rebuilt or repaired. This could be tough when you’re still paying the mortgage on the home that’s damaged.

Additional Living Expense can help by reimbursing you for reasonable increases in living expenses when a loss we cover makes your home uninhabitable. This may include payments for the cost of rent, hotel, food and other expenses. This coverage is included in your Allstate House & Home policy.
Most of your belongings are covered, too.

Your Allstate House & Home℠ Insurance includes coverage that can help you pay for losses that occur in your home such as burglary or fire. It can even protect you from loss away from home, such as in a hotel. Keep in mind that a deductible will apply. (See page 11 for more about deductibles.)

Personal Property Protection covers the loss of your belongings* if they’re stolen or damaged.

When we refer to “belongings” in this document, we mean personal property as detailed in your insurance policy.
There are limits on the coverage of some belongings.

Some categories of personal property coverage have a maximum dollar limit that Allstate will pay a policyholder in case of damage, loss or theft. Within these categories, there may also be a limit per single item.

Example: A homeowner has a $5,000 limit for all of the jewelry she owns, with a $1,000 limit per single item.

Maximum limit for all jewelry:

$5,000

Maximum limit per item:

$1,000

Note: This is just an example. Your actual limits may vary.

You can increase your limits.

If you have valuable belongings, it may be a good idea to increase your protection. Talk with your Allstate Agent or call 1-800-ALLSTATE.

If you’ve already added increased protection for your personal property, it will be listed on your Policy Declarations under Coverage and Applicable Deductibles or under the Scheduled Personal Property section.
How you’ll get reimbursed for damaged property.

The value of most of your belongings decreases over time. Some homeowners insurance takes this depreciation into consideration when they pay you for a loss.

With Allstate House & Home℠ Insurance, however, your belongings are covered for the amount it would take to replace them at the time of the claim.

Actual Cash Value typically means your belongings are covered for their replacement cost minus depreciation. Depreciation is the decrease in an item’s value due to its age, condition or other factors.

Here’s how it works:

• First, we give you a check for the actual cash value of the item

• When you replace the item, we then issue a separate check for the remaining amount needed to make the purchase

This feature of your policy can be a big help if items that depreciate quickly (e.g., TVs, computers, smartphones) need to be replaced because of a covered loss such as a burglary or fire.

A deductible is your share of the cost.

When you file a claim for a covered loss, you may be responsible for a set amount, called a deductible, to repair or replace whatever is damaged or stolen.

Example: A candle falls in the living room and starts a fire. It will cost $5,000 to replace the damaged furniture and drapes.

Homeowner has $500 deductible for Personal Property Protection.

More about deductibles.

- Not all coverages will have a deductible. However, a deductible will always apply to either Dwelling, Other Structures or Personal Property coverages.
- The amount of any deductible will be shown on your Policy Declarations next to the coverage.
- In most cases, you choose the deductible from a range of options. A higher deductible usually means a lower insurance premium.

Questions? Want to make changes? Call your Allstate Agent or 1-800-ALLSTATE.
Your homeowners policy can help you in case of an accident.

Your Allstate House & Home℠ Insurance includes Family Liability and Guest Medical Protection to help protect you in other situations, too.

For example, let’s say there’s a loose handrail in your house and it causes someone to fall. You may be found negligent for not repairing the handrail and therefore be legally responsible to pay for the injured person’s medical bills and lost wages.

Family Liability Protection can help protect you from financial loss if you’re legally obligated to pay for another person’s injuries or damage to another person’s property.*

For even more protection, you may be able to increase this coverage on your policy or buy a Personal Umbrella Policy (PUP). See page 15 for more information about PUP.
Or what if your son is playing at a neighbor’s house and hits a baseball through their window? You may be responsible for those types of damages, too. If so, your homeowners insurance can help.

If you or a family member cause injury to another person or damage to their property, your homeowners policy may help pay for the damages.

What if a guest is injured in your home?

If a guest has an accident in your home and it’s not covered by Family Liability, your homeowners policy may help.

Guest Medical Protection can help pay for reasonable and necessary medical expenses if someone is injured in an accident on your property.

If a guest is injured on your property, Guest Medical Protection may help pay for necessary medical expenses including surgery, x-rays and dental work.

Homeowners insurance doesn’t cover everything.

Homeowners insurance protects a home from accidental and sudden losses. However, there are some losses that aren’t covered.

Breakdowns in the home.

Most homeowners insurance does not cover basic maintenance repairs. For example, if your water heater cracks, your coverage most likely will not help to replace the water heater. (But it might help pay for the damage to your floors.) That’s why it’s a good idea to have all your heating, cooling and plumbing systems regularly serviced.

Floods, earthquakes and water backup.

Typically, floods, earthquakes and water (sewer) backups are excluded from most homeowners insurance. If you want to purchase additional insurance to cover these events, talk to your Allstate Agent or call 1-800-ALLSTATE.
Need more protection?

Below are just a few of the optional coverages that you may be able to purchase either as add-ons to your current policy or as a separate policy. Coverages may not be available in all states and limits may vary.

Questions? Want to make changes? Call your Allstate Agent or 1-800-ALLSTATE.
How to file a claim.

You can file a claim one of four ways:

- Call 1-800-ALLSTATE (1-800-255-7828)
- Log on to your account at allstate.com
- Call your Allstate Agent
- Download the Allstate℠ Mobile app at allstate.com/mobile

To track your claim, call your Allstate claim representative, your Allstate Agent or log on to your account at allstate.com.

What happens next?

The claim process will vary based on the extent of damage.

Here’s the typical process:

Step 1: If needed, we can provide referrals for assistance with temporary repairs such as boarding up windows.

Step 2: We’ll evaluate damages and prepare an estimate.

Step 3: Your Allstate claim representative will go over your policy with you to explain which coverages and limits apply.

Step 4: Where available, you can choose an Allstate-recommended repair vendor and have the workmanship guaranteed by the vendor. Or you can choose your own vendor.

Step 5: We wrap up your claim by answering any questions you may have and provide you with payment when appropriate.

What to do in case of a catastrophe.

A catastrophe such as a tornado or fire can damage many homes in an area all at once. When that happens, a dedicated Allstate team is on site to help make sure your claim is handled as quickly as possible. Call 1-800-54-STORM (1-800-547-8676).
Frequently asked questions.

Q: What if I don’t have all the information to file a claim?
A: Contacting Allstate as soon as possible can help speed up the claim process. Even if you don’t have all the information, you can always provide us with additional details later.

Q: What else can I do to speed up the claim process?
A: Taking an inventory of your belongings before anything happens can be very useful in verifying what you have and what it’s worth. Smartphone users can use the Allstate Digital Locker app. Or, you can download free inventory software from digitallocker.com.

Q: My repair person has found additional damage from the loss that wasn’t on the initial estimate. What do I do?
A: Once the repair process begins, further damages could be found. If this happens, call your Allstate claim representative, who will arrange to investigate the newly found damages. Sometimes there’s no need for us to physically inspect the damage and an additional payment, up to the policy limit, can be issued right away.

Q: What if I don’t agree with the estimate I received?
A: When you disagree with our evaluation of damages, please contact your Allstate claim representative or your Allstate Agent. Our commitment is to always settle claims as fairly as possible.

Q: Why does the check I received from Allstate include the name of my mortgage holder?
A: If you have a mortgage on your property, the mortgage holder is usually included on your policy along with your name. Most mortgage companies require that claims payment checks include the name(s) of the mortgage holder(s). Simply contact your mortgage holder to find out how to obtain their endorsement on the check.

Q: Can I view and pay my bill online?
A: Yes! Simply log into My Account at https://myaccount.allstate.com. Click on “Documents” to view policy documents, special notices and billing information. To pay a bill, click the “Billing” button — then choose how and when you want to pay your premium. While you’re there, why not enroll in eBill and ePolicy and receive your bills and policy via email? It’s convenient and environmentally friendly.
