

Allstate in Louisiana

For over 75 years, Allstate has been a champion of business and social initiatives to help improve the quality of life for Americans.

We help protect people in times of loss and help them prepare for a financially secure future. In 2005, Louisianans entrusted Allstate with 211,587 homes and other dwellings, 422,503 autos and 48,283 lives.

Allstate has always been a partner with the communities in which it does business. Here in Louisiana and across the country, our Foundation grants, corporate investments, supplier contracts, jobs and taxes paid in 2005 helped build stronger communities and fuel local economies.

Our partnership with the people of Louisiana has never been more important than when Hurricanes Katrina and Rita hit the Gulf Coast. I want to thank Allstate employees and agents – many of whom were displaced themselves – for their compassion and hard work in helping our customers, and to acknowledge Louisianans for their endurance during this difficult time. Together with the people of Louisiana, Allstate is working to rebuild the communities of the Gulf Coast.

Allstate is a caring, compassionate company. For us, “You’re in Good Hands® with Allstate” is more than a company slogan; it’s a way of life.
