

Allstate in New York

In 2006, Allstate celebrates its 75th anniversary. Through the years, we have successfully built a reputation based on the promise of integrity, diversity, dependability, and caring.

Those values have been the guiding force of our business, and they are also at the core of our commitment to New York communities.

Being a caring corporate citizen is a central focus of our company. We consider it a privilege to have partnerships that allow us to give back and have a local face and place in our state's neighborhoods. It is truly the very fabric of Allstate.

Our support through the Allstate Foundation gives us the valuable opportunity to touch the lives and the homes of our customers, agents, and employees. It gives us the chance to make a difference in the communities we serve.

We remain committed to preparing and protecting our customers and supporting and strengthening our communities. That's our stand.
