

Allstate in Virginia

For more than seventy-five years, Allstate has been a champion of business and social initiatives designed to improve the quality of life for all Americans. Our unwavering commitment to our customers and our promise to be there when families need help protecting their lives, their property and their communities has given great peace and security to millions of Allstate customers.

Our promise to be there extends beyond our business lines into community efforts where our years of experience and leadership have a significant impact. Right here in Virginia, The Allstate Foundation grants, corporate investments, supplier contracts, creation of jobs and taxes paid in 2005 helped build stronger communities and fuel local economies.

We are also proud to support our communities in building stronger and safer neighborhoods by working closely with local agents, civic organizations, such as Junior Achievement, Boys and Girls Clubs, schools, police and fire departments. We help families prepare for their futures by teaching them about smart investment strategies, saving for a college education, and how to plan for retirement.

By building strong community partnerships, providing financial support for specific programs through individual grants, or through the volunteer efforts of our Exclusive Agents, Personal Financial Representatives and employees, we partner with communities to help create thriving, vibrant places to live. Through The Allstate Foundation, we teach financial literacy to children and adults of all ages; we help low-income families become homeowners for the first time; we teach tolerance and prevention to youth; we build playgrounds to provide a safe environment for children to play; we encourage people to volunteer in their communities and much more.

Allstate Insurance Company, The Allstate Foundation, Allstate agencies and our employees take great pride in helping fellow citizens, both in good times and in times of crisis. The values that help guide our business – integrity, caring, dependability, diversity, and performance – are also at the core of our commitment to communities across the Commonwealth. In Virginia and across the country, Allstate is committed to strengthening our communities, protecting our customers, providing a great place to work, and operating our business with integrity. “You’re in Good Hands® with Allstate” is not just a company slogan; it’s a way of life!
