How to read your Landlords Package Policy Declarations.

When you purchase an Allstate® Landlords Package Policy (LPP), you'll receive a Policy Declarations. This document "declares" the choices you've made for your Landlords Package Policy, such as deductibles for some coverages as well as optional protection you may have purchased. It's important to note that the Policy Declarations is not a bill.

You'll receive a new Allstate Landlords Package Policy Declarations every renewal period, which is typically one year. You should always read through your renewal each year to make certain you're up-to-date on the latest features of the policy, any changes in premiums or other vital information.

The following page is an example of an Allstate Landlords Package Policy Declarations and shows you where to find some of the important information. It's a good idea to check your own Policy Declarations to make sure all the information is correct.

Questions? Want to make changes? Call your Allstate Agent.

Total Premium.

This is the amount you pay, whether in full or by installment, for your property's insurance protection for a one-year policy period and includes all the coverages you have selected.

Coverages.

This shows all the coverages you have as part of your landlords insurance.

For more about coverages, see pages 4-13 of this guide.

Deductibles.

A deductible is the amount you pay out of pocket when you file a claim for a covered loss.* Your policy's deductibles will be shown next to each coverage.

For more about deductibles, see page 9 of this guide.

Sample of an Allstate Landlords Package Policy Declarations

*What does "covered loss" mean?

It's an insurance term that means a loss or damage that falls within the bounds of the policy. Throughout the rest of this brochure, when we refer to a loss or accident, we assume it is a covered loss.

An overview of Landlords Package Policy Insurance.

As a landlord, you are now faced with unique risks, and you may need more protection than an average homeowners policy provides. This section of the guide summarizes key information about landlords insurance including:

- Dwelling Protection
- Deductibles
- Other ways you're protected
- What may not be covered
- Optional protection you can buy
- Claims

Your Dwelling is the actual rental property that's covered under your policy, including structures such as a deck or porch that are attached to the property.

Read more about Dwelling Protection on pages 6-8.

Other Structures are covered under your policy and include buildings such as a garage or storage shed that are separate from the dwelling.

Read more about Other Structures Protection on pages 6-8.

Personal Property protects appliances and other assets that are used in connection with the rental property. However, it doesn't cover your tenants' possessions. Advise residents to contact your Allstate agency for information about Allstate® Renters Insurance.

Fair Rental Income helps cover the rental income that you lose if your property is uninhabitable because of a covered loss, up to policy limits.

Read more about Fair Rental Income on page 7.

Your rental property is protected.

Landlords Package Policy Insurance can help protect your rental property. The property section of your policy includes two basic types of protection:

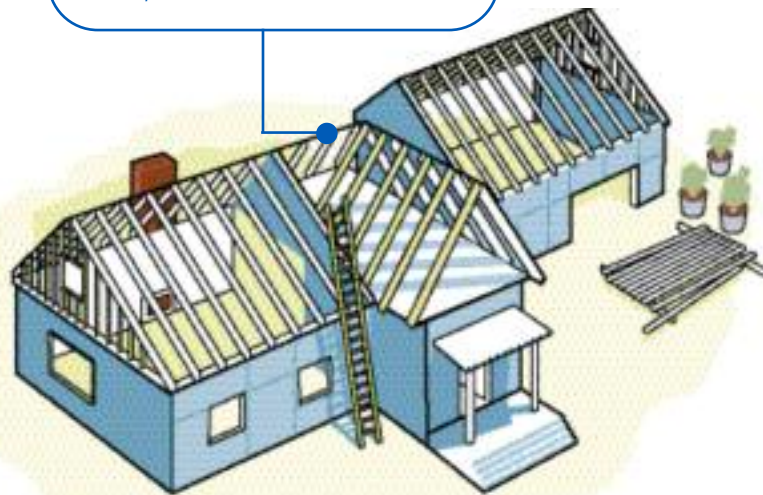

Dwelling Protection covers the rental property your tenants live in and other structures attached to it such as a garage, porch or deck.

Other Structures Protection covers additional buildings on your property that are separate from your rental dwelling, such as a stand-alone garage or a shed.

If the rental property or garage is damaged, your Landlords Package Policy insurance can help you repair or replace it.

Allstate covers a range of perils.

Allstate® Landlords Package Policy Insurance typically covers a range of perils. Below are a few of the most common ones.

- Fire and smoke
- Windstorm or hail
- Falling objects
- Water damage from plumbing, water heater or burst pipes (except sump pumps)
- Burglary*
- Vandalism*

Your landlords insurance includes limited coverage for damage to your rental property due to vandalism and burglary. You can purchase additional vandalism and burglary coverage to better protect your rental property. These coverages will also protect your personal property used in connection with the rental, such as appliances and other assets.*

See page 13 for more about Vandalism and Burglary coverage.

What if you can't rent your property because it is too damaged to live in?

If you temporarily cannot continue renting your property due to damage from a covered loss, you're losing valuable rental income.

Fair Rental Income can help if your rental property becomes uninhabitable because of a covered loss. You'll receive compensation for the rental income you would have received. This covers the time required to either repair or replace the rental unit — up to a maximum of 12 months or the policy limits.

How you will get reimbursed for damage to your rental dwelling.

With Allstate® Landlords Package Policy, there are two ways covered losses can be settled.

Actual Cash Value may be lower than the cost to repair or replace your damaged rental dwelling. You may be required to purchase an Actual Cash Value policy based on the age and condition of your rental property.

Building Structure Reimbursement typically means your dwelling is covered for more than the actual cash value — up to your policy limits — if you repair or replace the damaged property within the required time period. However, your rental property must meet age and condition requirements to be eligible.

Here's how the Building Structure Reimbursement Provision works:

- A check is given to you for the Actual Cash Value for the damage to the rental property up to the policy limits.
- When you repair or replace the property within the required time period, we then issue a separate check for the remaining amount needed to make the repairs or replacement, up to your policy limits.

Refer to your policy for more detailed information.

How to review what you have. If you have an Allstate Landlords Package Policy, you can review which type of coverage you have by looking at your Policy Declarations. With either coverage, a deductible will apply. (See next page for more about deductibles.)

A deductible is your share of the cost.

When you file a claim for a covered loss, you may be responsible for a set amount, called a deductible, to repair or replace whatever is damaged or stolen.

Example: A fire starts in the rental property and burns the walls, causing $5,000 worth of damage.

More about deductibles.

- Not all coverages will have a deductible. However, a deductible will always apply to Dwelling, Other Structures and Personal Property coverages.
- The amount of any deductible will be shown on your Policy Declarations next to the coverage.
- In most cases, you choose the deductible from a range of options. A higher deductible usually means a lower insurance premium.

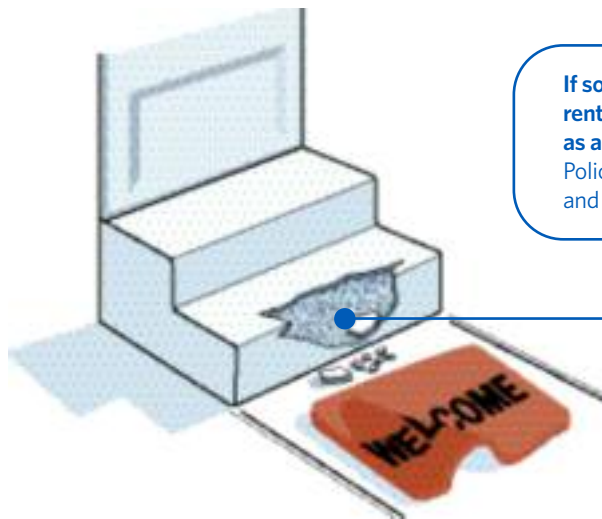

Your Landlords Package Policy can help in the case of an accident.

Allstate® Landlords Package Policy includes Liability Protection and Premises Medical Protection to help protect you in other situations, too.

For example, let's say there's a loose handrail on your rental property and it causes your tenant or your tenant's guest to fall. You may be found negligent for not repairing the handrail and therefore be legally responsible to pay for the injured person's medical bills and lost wages.

Liability Protection can help protect you from financial loss if you're legally obligated to pay for another person's injuries or damage to their property. We will also provide your legal defense and pay for a portion of your lost wages when you are asked to attend trials and hearings.*

If someone injures himself on your rental property due to your negligence as a landlord, your Landlords Package Policy may help pay for their injuries and your related legal costs.

*For more protection, you may be able to increase this coverage on your Allstate policy or buy a Personal Umbrella Policy (PUP). (See page 13 for more information.)

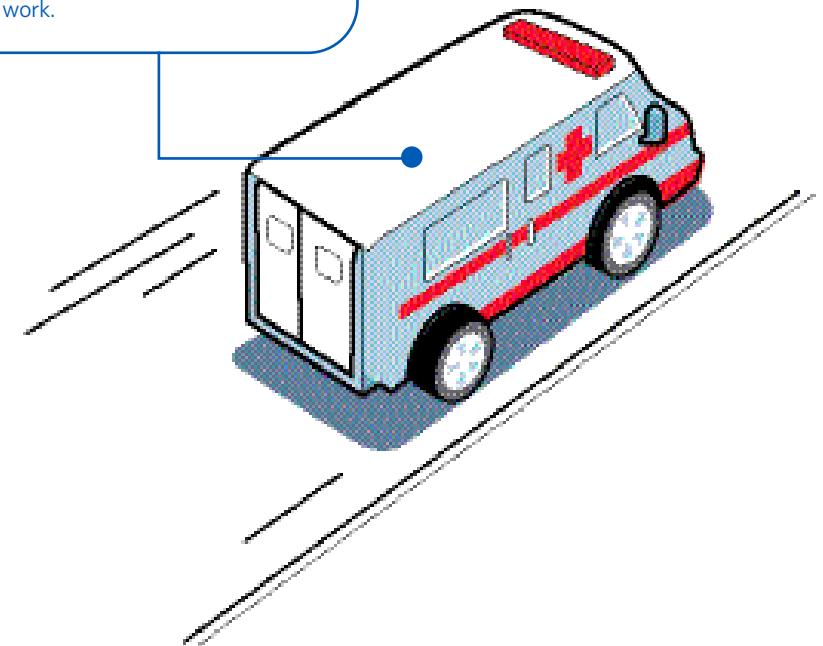

What if a guest of your tenant is injured on your rental property?

If a guest has an accident on your rental property, Premises Medical Protection may help.

Premises Medical Protection can help pay for reasonable and necessary medical expenses if someone is injured in an accident on your rental property.

If a guest is injured on your rental property, Premises Medical Protection may help pay for necessary medical expenses including surgery, x-rays and dental work.

Questions? Want to make changes? Call your Allstate Agent.

Landlords insurance doesn't cover everything.

Landlords insurance protects a rental property from accidental and sudden losses. However, there are some losses that aren't covered.

Breakdowns in the rental property.

Most landlords insurance does not cover basic maintenance repairs. For example, if your water heater cracks, your coverage most likely will not help to replace the water heater. (But it might help pay for the damage to your floors.)

Personal property.

The items owned by your tenants, such as their clothing, electronics and other personal possessions, aren't covered under most landlords insurance policies. You may want to recommend that your tenants purchase Allstate® Renters Insurance to cover their belongings in case of a loss.

Also, damage due to vandalism caused by a tenant is not typically covered by the Landlords Package Policy, unless you purchase additional Vandalism coverage, and the damage is within the policy limit.

Floods, earthquakes and water backup.

Typically, floods, earthquakes and water (sewer) backups are excluded from most landlords insurance.

How to file a claim.

You can file or track a claim one of four ways:

- Call 1-800-ALLSTATE (1-800-255-7828)
- Log on to your account at allstate.com
- Call your Allstate Agent
- Download the AllstateSM Mobile app at allstate.com/mobile

What happens next?

The claim process will vary based on the extent of damage. Here's the typical process:

Step 1: If needed, we can provide referrals for assistance with temporary repairs such as boarding up windows.

Step 2: We'll evaluate damages and prepare an estimate.

Step 3: Your Allstate claim representative will go over your policy with you to explain which coverages and limits apply.

Step 4: Where available, you can choose a repair vendor and have the workmanship guaranteed by the vendor. Or you can choose your own vendor.

Step 5: We wrap up your claim by answering any questions you may have and provide you with payment when appropriate.

What to do in case of a catastrophe. A catastrophe such as a tornado or fire can damage many residences in an area all at once. When that happens, a dedicated Allstate team is on site to help make sure your claim is handled as quickly as possible. Call 1-800-54-STORM (1-800-547-8676).

Frequently asked questions.

Q: Can I purchase a Landlords Package Policy if I live on the second floor of my rental property?

A: No. The Landlords Package Policy is solely intended for non-owner occupied dwellings. You will need to purchase a different type of policy and/or policies to ensure you have the appropriate coverage. Contact your Allstate Agent for more information.

Q: Will the policy cover my renters' personal property?

A: No. However, you may want to consider requiring your tenants to carry renters insurance. The renters insurance policy will help cover your tenants' personal belongings as well as cover any liability that may be a result of your tenants' neglect; for example, fire legal liability (e.g., left the stove on) or water damage (e.g., tub overflowed).

Q: Is the landlord policy all the insurance that prospective landlords need?

A: Maybe. However, landlords probably want to consider a Personal Umbrella Policy (PUP). With the landlord policy, landlords can purchase up to $500,000 of liability insurance. The PUP covers more types of losses and can be purchased for up to $5 million of coverage.

Q: What if I don't have all the information to file a claim?

A: Calling Allstate as soon as possible can help speed up the claim process. Even if you don't have all the information, you can always provide us with additional details later.

Q: What else can I do to speed up the claim process?

A: Taking an inventory of your belongings before anything happens can be very useful in verifying what you have and what it's worth. Smartphone users can use the Allstate Digital Locker app or you can download free inventory software from digitallocker.com.

Q: Can I view and pay my bill online?

A: Yes! Simply log into My Account at <https://myaccount.allstate.com>. Click on "Documents" to view policy documents, special notices and billing information. To pay a bill, click the "Billing" button — then choose how and when you want to pay your premium. While you're there, you can also enroll in eBill and ePolicy and receive your bills and policy via email.

Need more protection?

Below are just a few of the optional coverages that you may be able to purchase either as add-ons to your current policy or as a separate policy. Coverages may not be available in all states and limits may vary.

Available as add-ons to your policy

Look under "Coverage" on your Policy Declarations.

	Vandalism	Provides more coverage to help pay for repairs or replacement to your dwelling due to vandalism and provides coverage for belongings used for the rental property.
	Burglary	Provides more coverage to help pay for repairs or replacement to your dwelling due to burglary and provides coverage for belongings used for the rental property.
	Rental property under construction	If you're renovating or building a new construction rental property, this coverage covers the dwelling prior to being ready for occupancy.
	Building code	Additional coverage when repair or replacement from a covered loss results in increased cost due to enforcement of any building codes, ordinances or laws regulating construction, reconstruction, maintenance, repair or demolition of your dwelling.

Separate policies you can purchase

Look for these policies in a separate mailing.

	Flood insurance	Your Allstate Agent can help you purchase a separate policy through the National Flood Insurance Plan (NFIP). Or call 1-800-ALLSTATE.
	Personal Umbrella Policy (PUP)	If someone sues you over an accident and the settlement exceeds the liability limits on your Landlords Package Policy, this coverage can help protect your assets.
